“A Threat to the National Parks,” October 23, 1941, Folder: Newspaper Articles, Organ Pipe, Box 2319, Central Classified Files, 1907-49, RG 79, NARA-MD.

This report was a newspaper clipping that came from the time around World War II. It discussed a bill that would allow for mining in Organ Pipe National Park. People were unsure whether or not there were mine deposits in the park. President Roosevelt expressed his concern and view on conservation with the national parks and was planned to veto the bill.
